An Online Group Discussion was organized under the auspices of the Department of Economics, Sh. Lal Nath Hindu College, Rohtak on August 22, 2020 on Zoom platform. The topic for this discussion was 'Impact of COVID-19 on Institutional Life', which is quite appropriate in the current pandemic situation. Further, it was very important to discuss the positive and negative aspects of this crucial time period among the students so that they could aware themselves and people around them about how we could balance between the good and bad situation. Total 15 students from various streams, participated in this activity and share their views regarding covid-19 impacts among all of us.

In the beginning, Mrs Chandana Jain, assistant professor, Department of Economics welcomed worthy Principal, Dr Vijay Kumar, Mrs Bandana Ranga, convener and Head department of Economics, all staff members and all the participants. Before starting the discussion, Mrs. Chandana Jain told rules and gave important instructions regarding Group Discussion Competition to all the participants and introduced the Jury members to all. Dr. Anju Deswal, Assistant Professor, Department of Hindi and Dr. Sandeep Kumar, assistant professor, Department of Economics were Jury members. In this group discussion some of the participants shared their thoughts while discussing the negative aspects of covid-19 on institution life. On the other hand, some participants found it positive also in some cases. According to them, this Pandemic should be perceived as an opportunity in disguise for online education in the institutions.

As E-Learning overcomes Geographical barriers and ensures equitable access to education. It also facilitates convenient, quick, on the go and 24x 7 access. E-. learning since a viable solution at the moment to fill the void created due to the absence of classroom learning. However, it was discussed while highlighting its negative impacts that the repeat evolution of this crisis has influenced the students of all age groups. due to the continue to spread of the disease, closure of many educational institutions has a significant impact on the education and mental health of the students. the students from the less privileged backgrounds have expiry larger negative impacts due to reduction in family income, Limited access to digital resources and the high cost of internet connectivity have disrupted the academic life of the students.

With this discussion, all the participants expressed their views and benefited by exchanging each other's thoughts. The participants took part in this discussion without keeping in mind the feeling of defeat. This discussion proved very fruitful in this manner to motivate the students and to increase their morale. Students were encouraged to participate in such kinds of activities to keep aside their hesitation. Results of this competition are as follows:

Principal Dr. Vijay Kumar addressed the participants and congratulated the winners. He said that these kinds of activities should be organized frequently as these are a crucial part of a student's life and are a must for their overall development. At the end of the program, the convener of this activity and Head, Department of Economics, Mrs. Bandana Ranga expressed her gratitude by a vote of thanks to the worthy Principal, all staff members present, the organizing committee and last, but not the least, all the participants to make this competition informative and successful one.
