

Inauguration of Skill Development Centre (24.02.2022)

Skill development center has been set up under the aegis of Shri Lal Nath Hindu Mahavidyalaya, Rohtak in collaboration with Rotary Club. The prime purpose of this center is to make girls self-reliant. Former minister of Cooperation, Mr. Manish Grover, Mrs. Samridhi Jain, Director, B.P. Jain Skill Development Center and Ms. Alpana Sarin, General Manager, Singer India Ltd. inaugurated the Centre by cutting the ribbon and lighting the lamp. Chief guest, Mr. Manish Grover said that with the opening of sewing center, girls will become self-dependent. He suggested that girls should not run after the jobs. They should move ahead by setting up their own small industries.

Samridhi Jain, as a special guest, told that girls can achieve every possible milestone with a machine. This event was successfully organized under the guidance of honorable chairperson, Mr. Rajesh Sehgal and principal Dr. Rashmi Chhabra. About 30 students were present and got enrolled for classes.
