O/T Academics

Objectives of the Screening

1. Enhance Understanding: To help students grasp the intricate themes of nationalism, colonialism, and rural Indian life depicted in the novel.
2. Visual Engagement: To provide a cinematic experience that complements the literary text, allowing students to visualize the narrative and its characters.
3. Encourage Discussion: To foster an environment for critical discussion and analysis post-screening, enabling students to articulate their thoughts and interpretations.

Event Details

The screening took place in D103, equipped with a large screen and audio-visual facilities to ensure an immersive experience for the students. The event commenced at 12:15 pm and was attended by students of BA Semester 5, along with faculty members from the Department of English.

Schedule of Events

- Welcome Address: The event began with a welcome address by Dr Shikha, Head of the Department, who introduced the significance of “Kanthapura” in Indian literature and its relevance to contemporary societal issues.
- Screening: The film adaptation of “Kanthapura” was screened, lasting approximately 2 hours. The film effectively captured the essence of the novel, showcasing the protagonist, the village of Kanthapura, and the impact of the Indian independence movement on rural communities.
- Post-Screening Discussion: Following the screening, a discussion session was held. Students were encouraged to share their insights and reflections on the film and its relation to the novel. Dr Sumit, Dr Harshita & Dr Raunak facilitated the discussion, posing questions about character development, thematic elements, and the portrayal of social issues.

Student Engagement

The screening was met with enthusiasm from the students, who expressed their appreciation for the opportunity to engage with the material in a dynamic format. Many students shared their thoughts on how the film enhanced their understanding of the narrative and its characters.
