A Social Welfare Drive is being organized by Department of Economics from November 25, 2025 onwards. Faculty and students can donate their used and old items like old winter clothes, sweaters, shawls, blankets and shoes etc. in this drive. This drive will surely be beneficial to those needy and poor people of society who actually need them. This camp is in continuation of previous successful camps held in 2023 and 2024, in which many kinds of useful clothes, shoes and blankets etc. collected and distributed among the needy. The success of these camps motivated us to organize one more welfare drive in the current year also.

Hope your contribution will make this initiative a successful one.

Principal

One-Week Social Welfare campaign was organized by the Department of Economics at Shri Lal Nath Hindu College, Rohtak concluded under the chairmanship of the college Principal, Dr. Anil Kumar Taneja.

The Head of the Department, Dr. Bandna Ranga stated that this initiative aims to make students realize their responsibility towards society. With this objective, three donation boxes were set up on the college campus, where old warm clothes, blankets, and shoes were collected with the joint cooperation of teachers and students. This campaign has been organized continuously for the past three years.

The collected items were distributed among the needy and underprivileged people living in the slums located at Bhiwani Chungi. Principal Dr. Anil Kumar Taneja emphasized that our unused belongings can become a life-saving resource for someone else. Reaching out to help the needy during the biting winter cold is the core objective of this campaign.

The campaign was successfully conducted under the supervision of Dr. Bandna Ranga, Dr. Sandeep and Mrs. Chandna Jain. Other staff members including Mrs. Anila Bathla, Dr. Shikha, Dr. Neelam, Mr. Bhagat Singh, Mr. Ravi and Mohit were also present on the occasion.

Subject: Proud Representation of Sh. L.N. Hindu College, Rohtak at International Surajkund Mela – 14 February

It is a matter of immense pride and honour to inform all students and staff that our talented students have been selected to perform (Group Dance, Ragini, Group Song etc.) at the prestigious International Surajkund Mela on 14th February 2026.

The Surajkund International Crafts Mela is a globally renowned cultural festival that showcases art, culture, and talent from across the world. Our students' participation on such a grand international platform reflects their dedication, excellence, and the high standards of our institution.

This achievement brings great recognition to our college and strengthens our institutional branding at a global cultural forum.

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to the performers and their mentors and wish them outstanding success as they represent our college with pride and confidence.

Principal

A total of 60 students from Shri Lal Nath Hindu College, Rohtak, under the leadership of the Principal, Dr. Anil Kumar Taneja, participated in the International Suraj Kund Mela, Haryana. The participation in this fair proved to be an unforgettable experience for the students, as they enjoyed India's diverse cultural heritage, cottage industries, art, handicrafts, and folk music.

The Suraj Kund Mela, a world-renowned fair, provides a platform every year for both international and national artists and artisans. This year's fair offered a unique opportunity for cultural exchange and showcased rich diversity. The students of L.N. Hindu College actively participated in the event and captivated the audience with their musical and dance performances, displaying their talent.

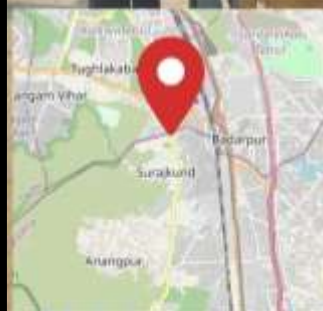

The students believe that such events help broaden their cultural understanding and enhance their perspective towards art. They explored and learned about both traditional and modern crafts, as well as local and international art forms exhibited at the fair.

Highlighting the importance of this educational visit, the coordinator Dr. Sandeep Kumar stated, "The Suraj Kund Mela is not only a cultural festival but also provides our students with an excellent opportunity to understand various styles of art and craft at national and international levels. We are committed to making such events an integral part of students' educational experiences."

Participation in the Suraj Kund Mela not only exposed the students to diverse cultures but also strengthened their teamwork and social skills.

Dr. Meenakshi Gugnani, Dr. Bandna Ranga, Dr. Neelam, Dr. Mamta Sehgal, Dr. Richa, and Mrs. Shruti made commendable contributions in making this event a success.
