Activities organised by the Department of English during the session 2024-2025

1. One week social welfare Drive

The “No use to Best use” drive created a sense of social responsibility among students and staff. The college community actively participated to make the initiative successful and to spread awareness about recycling ,reuse and community service and to inculcate values of compassion and social welfare among students. It helped the bridge the gap between those who have surplus and those who are in need, while also promoting sustainable practices.

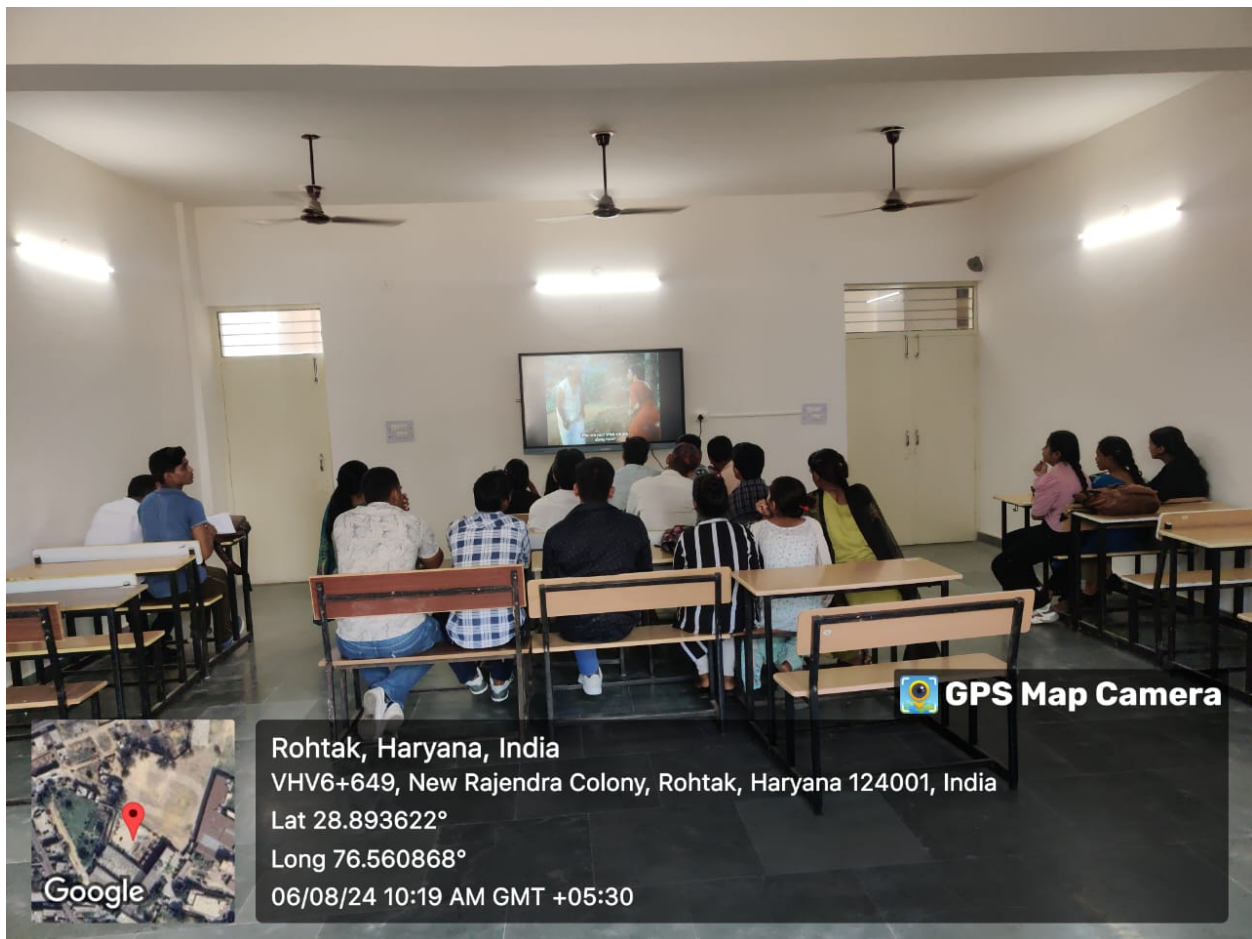

2. Screening of Novel ‘Kanthapura’

As a part of literary and academic activities for session 2024-25 ,the Department of English organised screening of movie based on Novel ‘Kanthapura’ by Raja Rao .The objective was to introduce students to Indian English literature through cinema and to discuss the themes of nationalism ,Gandhian ideals and social reforms.

It enhanced their understanding of the novel and inspired them to read more Indian literary works. Students appreciated the portrayal of Gandhian values and social issues.
